

Guided Reading Activity: 23-3

The Growth of Industry

As you read Section 3, answer the following questions.

1. How did Great Britain become known as “the workshop of the world”?

2. Why did industrialization proceed slowly in France?

3. How are business practices determined in a capitalist system?

4. How are products made on an assembly line?

5. What are two forms of business organization that industrial leaders developed as production increased?

6. Of what two phases does a business cycle consist?

7. What innovation in communications linked most European cities in the early 1800s?

8. What prompted the replacement of coal as the major source of industrial fuel?

9. What two industries were boosted by the development of airplanes and other motor vehicles?

Copyright © by The McGraw-Hill Companies, Inc.