

- B. _____ 33. Bats are the only flying mammals.
_____ 34. Mammals are believed to be the most intelligent animals on Earth.
_____ 35. Mammals are coldblooded vertebrates that have hair or fur.
_____ 36. The young of some mammals hatch from eggs.
_____ 37. Some mammals do not feed their young milk.
_____ 38. The teeth of gnawing mammals stop growing when these animals become adults.
_____ 39. Pigs, camels, and horses all have hooves.
_____ 40. Carnivores use their canine teeth to tear food.

C. Completion

Fill in the word or number that best completes each statement.

41. Organisms that maintain a constant body temperature despite the temperature of their surroundings are said to be _____.
42. The structures in a female mammal that produce milk are the _____.
43. The group of mammals whose young are born partially developed are the _____.
44. Another name for a flesh-eating mammal is a(an) _____.
45. In mammals, the structure through which the young receive food and oxygen while growing within the mother is known as the _____.
46. Long, pointed teeth that are used for tearing and shredding meat are called _____ teeth.
47. Young marsupials complete their development in their mother's _____.
48. Humans are examples of the group of mammals called _____.
49. Rats and mice are examples of _____ mammals.
50. The group of egg-laying mammals are known as _____.
51. Whales are mammals because they have hair and produce _____.
52. The kangaroo, a pouched mammal, is also known as a(an) _____.
53. The only marsupial native to the United States is the _____.
54. Bats hunt insects by using _____.
55. Wolves are flesh-eating mammals, or _____.
56. The sloth belongs to the group of _____ mammals.
57. The movement of an elephant's trunk is controlled by thousands of _____.
58. The largest land mammals are the _____.
59. Whales live in water but must return to the surface to _____.
60. The only mammals that can make their own tools are _____.

Complete Even Numbers .78, 80, 82

77. Explain why the teeth of a gnawing mammal must continue to grow.

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

78. Some people think a porpoise is a fish because it lives in the ocean. List three reasons that prove this idea is not correct.

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

79. What are two reasons scientists consider the primates to be among the most intelligent animals on Earth?

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

80. What characteristic places an armadillo and a sloth in the same mammal group?

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

81. You can tell about the way an animal lives by the teeth in its mouth. What kind of teeth would you expect to find in the mouth of a flesh-eating mammal? How would these teeth help this animal survive?

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

82. How do the tentacles at the end of the nose of a star-nosed mole help this animal survive? Why is eyesight not important to this animal?

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

83. What does a kangaroo baby do immediately after it is born? Why is this important for the baby's survival?

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---