

SIMPLE AND COMPOUND SENTENCES

Combine each pair of sentences into a compound sentence. Choose from the box a conjunction that fits each sentence best. Write your sentence.

and

but

or

1. The school board wants a parking lot. Darnell wants a garden.
2. Linda Gold took one side of the issue. Darnell took the other.
3. The hall might be empty. All the seats might be filled.
4. The council could vote for a garden. It could vote for the parking lot.
5. Darnell's article was published. People paid attention to him.
6. The Corner Crew were mostly good kids. No one listened to them.
7. The garden is small. It is a start.
8. You can eat homegrown produce. You can sell it.
9. You may not think about homeless people. They are still there.

