

COMPOUND SUBJECTS AND PREDICATES

Combine each pair of sentences into one sentence with a compound subject or a compound predicate.

1. Phoebe watched the Three Stooges. Mick watched the Three Stooges.
2. Phoebe stood. Phoebe walked to the microphone.

Use the following compound subjects or compound predicates to write complete sentences.

3. Fog, rain, and snow (subject)
4. Windshield wipers and headlights (subject)
5. Drivers and passengers (subject)
6. An accident or an injury (subject)
7. use proper signal lights and make turns slowly (predicate)
8. slow down at intersections, watch for pedestrians, and obey traffic signals (predicate)
9. do stupid things but "luck out" (predicate)
10. take precautions and use common sense (predicate)

