

Grammar Slammer: Unit 1 Pt. 1, Day 1

Your name:

Please diagram the subject and verb in these sentences:

1. My ugly cat ate a tomato.
2. Ernest picked his nose.
3. My hermit crab is crazy.
4. The dedicated student had a notebook for every single class, even Advisory.
5. The new Selena Gomez CD contains a mash-up.

Grammar Slammer: Unit 1 Pt. 1, Day 1

Your name:

Please diagram the subject and verb in these sentences:

1. My ugly cat ate a tomato.
2. Ernest picked his nose.
3. My hermit crab is crazy.
4. The dedicated student had a notebook for every single class, even Advisory.
5. The new Selena Gomez CD contains a mash-up.

Grammar Slammer: Unit 1 Pt. 1, Day 2

Your name:

Please diagram the subject and verb in these sentences:

1. Your clock rings every morning for two hours or more!
2. The silliest cat in my house is happy under the bed all day long.
3. The dark, strange music was scary to everyone in the haunted house.
4. I have planned a picnic in the rain for later this afternoon.
5. My brother's dog licks the walls on a regular basis.

Grammar Slammer: Unit 1 Pt. 1, Day 2

Your name:

Please diagram the subject and verb in these sentences:

1. Your clock rings every morning for two hours or more!
2. The silliest cat in my house is happy under the bed all day long.
3. The dark, strange music was scary to everyone in the haunted house.
4. I have planned a picnic in the rain for later this afternoon.
5. My brother's dog licks the walls on a regular basis.

Grammar Slammer: Unit 1 Pt. 1, Day 3

Your name:

Please diagram the subject and verb in these sentences:

1. Your brother should quit that this instant!
2. The strange family went over the river and through the woods to Grandmother's house.
3. I normally find my mother under my bathroom sink after my parties.
4. The clown seemed incredibly sad at the end of the performance.
5. The talented baton twirler amazed us all.

Grammar Slammer: Unit 1 Pt. 1, Day 3

Your name:

Please diagram the subject and verb in these sentences:

1. Your brother should quit that this instant!
2. The strange family went over the river and through the woods to Grandmother's house.
3. I normally find my mother under my bathroom sink after my parties.
4. The clown seemed incredibly sad at the end of the performance.
5. The talented baton twirler amazed us all.

Grammar Slammer: Unit 1 Pt. 1, Day 4

Your name:

Please diagram the subject and verb in these sentences:

1. Over the rainbow, the golden mosquito flew upside down.
2. The lucky students had been hoping for a whole week off after Snowzilla!
3. Actually, you should take me with you.
4. The scaly, slimy crocodile ate a burrito for lunch.
5. Because of the snowcation, the students slept until at least noon every day.

Grammar Slammer: Unit 1 Pt. 1, Day 4

Your name:

Please diagram the subject and verb in these sentences:

1. Over the rainbow, the golden mosquito flew upside down.
2. The lucky students had been hoping for a whole week off after Snowzilla!
3. Actually, you should take me with you.
4. The scaly, slimy crocodile ate a burrito for lunch.
5. Because of the snowcation, the students slept until at least noon every day.

Grammar Slammer: Unit 1 Pt. 1, Day 5

Your name:

Please diagram the subject and verb in these sentences:

1. Under the piano, the cockroach of unusual size had been eating Cheerios.
2. I absolutely love to pick my teeth with a skewer.
3. Because of the snow, you can go back to sleep!
4. The woman in my knitting group was making a tent out of yarn.
5. Because of his bad breath, I had to make a mask out of shredded paper to protect me from the smell.

Grammar Slammer: Unit 1 Pt. 1, Day 5

Your name:

Please diagram the subject and verb in these sentences:

1. Under the piano, the cockroach of unusual size had been eating Cheerios.
2. I absolutely love to pick my teeth with a skewer.
3. Because of the snow, you can go back to sleep!
4. The woman in my knitting group was making a tent out of yarn.
5. Because of his bad breath, I had to make a mask out of shredded paper to protect me from the smell.

Grammar Slammer: Unit 1 Pt. 1, Day 6

Please diagram the subject and verb in these sentences:

1. Without a care in the world, Captain Underpants' little brother had been whistling in the wind.
2. It should have been easy to write a love letter to my favorite crayon in the box.
3. You are sticking your nose into a nest of spiders!
4. The cat under the table was nibbling on my toes to make me laugh.
5. After Snowzilla, some of the less dedicated students did not want any more snow.

Grammar Slammer: Unit 1 Pt. 1, Day 6

Please diagram the subject and verb in these sentences:

1. Without a care in the world, Captain Underpants' little brother had been whistling in the wind.
2. It should have been easy to write a love letter to my favorite crayon in the box.
3. You are sticking your nose into a nest of spiders!
4. The cat under the table was nibbling on my toes to make me laugh.
5. After Snowzilla, some of the less dedicated students did not want any more snow.

Grammar Slammer: Unit 1 Pt. 1, Day 7

Please diagram the subject and verb in these sentences:

1. Over the mountains and through the tunnels, we have been battling our way to the grocery store.
2. Your mother really needs to keep out of my business!
3. After all the snow, it has been crazy trying to catch up on assignments.
4. The sloth in the tree was hanging upside down for hours.
5. In our classroom, we have been studying The Odyssey.

Grammar Slammer: Unit 1 Pt. 1, Day 7

Please diagram the subject and verb in these sentences:

1. Over the mountains and through the tunnels, we have been battling our way to the grocery store.
2. Your mother really needs to keep out of my business!
3. After all the snow, it has been crazy trying to catch up on assignments.
4. The sloth in the tree was hanging upside down for hours.
5. In our classroom, we have been studying The Odyssey.