Grammar: Singular
and Plural Nouns

Skill Reminder • A singular noun names one person, place, thing, or idea. • A plural noun names more than one person, place, thing, or idea.

- List each singular noun in the first column and each plural noun in the second column.

	Singular	Plural
1. Five men fit into the boat.	_____	_____
2. Huge waves battered the hull.	_____	_____
3. A rock with sharp edges could be dangerous.	_____	_____
4. There were several islands in the frigid sea.	_____	_____
5. The winds caused constant peril.	_____	_____

- Rewrite each sentence, using the correct plural form of the nouns in parentheses ().

6. Hunger and terrible weather were the main (enemy) of the (explorer).

7. Going thirty (hour) without sleep could cause exhaustion or even (illness).

8. Were the (reward) of the trip worth all the (difficulty)? _____

Make a family tree or a “friend tree” on a large sheet of paper. Draw a box for yourself connected to other boxes for your family members or friends. In each box, write the person’s name, along with things they have one of, two of, and many of. For example: “Jose has one cat, two puppies, and many fish.”

Skill Reminder To determine the correct spelling of easily confused words, pronounce each word carefully and think about how it is used in a sentence.

► Fold the paper along the dotted line. As each spelling word is read aloud, write it in the blank. Then unfold your paper, and check your work. Practice spelling any words you missed.
