

English

Aim/Skill/Concept:

Students will be able to identify elements of nonfiction in their weekly story.

Materials

Reading Book pgs. 274-286
Questions #1-5
pencil

Assessment:

The students will read a nonfiction story and use text structure and format to understand how an author has organized the information.

Student Homework Text Book Workbook Worksheet

In their journal, the students are to write an essay (5 paragraphs) on 3 new things they learned about themselves recently.

Lab(s) / Link(s) / Podcast / TED Talks needed for above assignment.

Social Studies

Aim/Skill/Concept:

Students will be able to identify the meaning of treaties, war and veto.

Materials:

Social Studies Book pgs. 114-115
Social Studies Comp. Book
Pencil

Assessment:

The students will read and discuss why departments in our country were created to help the president.

Student Homework: Text Book Workbook Worksheet

Define the lesson's Vocabulary words and study for a future test.

Lab(s) / Link(s) / Podcast / TED Talks needed for above assignment.