

Aim/Skill/Concept:

ELA- Students will be able to identify singular nouns and plural nouns that end in -s and -es.
SS - Students will be able to explore the different regions of the United States through a Jeopardy style game.

Materials

ELA - Lang Arts Textbook, blank paper, coloring tools, pencil
SS - Internet access, Can You Name All The US States worksheet and/or textbook, pencil

Assessment:

ELA- Formative: Observe participation and contribution during the discussion. | Written: Guided & More Practice | Exit Ticket: Q & A
SS - Formative: Observe participation and contribution during the discussion. | Written: | Exit Ticket: Jeopardy Style Game

Student Homework

Text Book

☐

Workbook

☐

Worksheet

☒

ELA - On a blank paper, list 12-15 My Plate items, draw a picture of each, then list both the singular and plural form of each word.
SS - 1) What State Am I? x 5 on index cards. 2) Review Can You Name All the US States and/or your textbook. State test tomorrow.

Lab(s) / Link(s) / Podcast / TED Talks needed for above assignment.

Math

Aim/Skill/Concept:

MATH - Students will be able to add 4-digit numbers with and without regrouping.

Materials:

MATH- Textbook, practice worksheet, notebook, pencil

Assessment:

MATH - Formative: Observe participation and contributions during the discussion. | Written: Practice and Problem Solving | Exit Ticket: Q& A

Student Homework:

Text Book

☐

Workbook

☐

Worksheet

☒

MATH - PW23 Choose a Method